Rochester, MN has two sister cities in Germany. We make official visits to these two cities, meet with city leaders and local committees, and tour key sites in each city. Our goal is to foster closer ties and exchange ideas to build better cities in both countries.

Day 1: Friday, Sept. 12, 2025 • Depart U.S.

Our journey begins as we board our international flight bound for Munich, Germany. Inflight meals

Day 2: Saturday, Sept. 13, 2025 • Moosburg a.d. Isar (sister city)

We are met at Munich airport and drive to our first destination (about an hour) with a stop for lunch. Moosburg a.d. Isar is Rochester's Sister City. We visit this town, located on the Isar River, and receive a welcome from our local hosts. It is the oldest town in southern Germany, with a Benedictine Abbey established as early as the 8th century. The town has a cultural and historical richness that it fosters to set itself apart from nearby, larger municipalities. Our team meets with local officials to observe how they are fostering community pride in the younger generations, maintaining their own culture and enveloping new technology and ideas into venerated traditions. Moosburg officials determine a schedule of activities, which includes enjoying the Herbstschau, the cities fall festival. D

Note: Itinerary can be changed based on events with local dignitaries.

Day 3: Sunday, Sept. 14, 2025 • Moosburg a.d. Isar (sister city)

Today we take part in the Herbstschau Parade. We have free time to explore and mingle with our friends from Moosburg. B, D

Rhine Cruise

Heidelberg

Day 4: Monday, Sept. 15, 2025 • Moosburg a.d. Isar (sister city)

Included in our itinerary today are town highlights. During WWII, a prisoner of war camp, Stalig VII-A was built, which was turned into a civilian internment camp after the liberation by the Americans in 1945. We visit a memorial fountain for the camp. We also see the important alter-piece of the Kastulus Minster and the nature preserve on the Isar River. Additional activities are coordinated in conjunction with our hosts. Tonight we have a farewell dinner with some of our new friends. B, D

Day 5: Tuesday, Sept. 16, 2025 • Rothenburg ob der Tauber

We make our way northwest to the medieval walled city of Rothenburg ob der Tauber. This delightful little town is a favorite of travelers from around the world. After checking in at our hotel, we visit the St. James Church and see the famous altar created by the renowned woodcarver, Tilman Riemenschneider. The rest of the afternoon is ours to walk along the city wall, admire the half-timbered buildings or shop at Käthe Wohlfahrt's Christmas Village. After dinner, we learn more about life in medieval times as we accompany the Night Watchman on a guided tour of the town. B, D

Day 6: Wednesday, Sept. 17, 2025 • Rudesheim am Rhein

After breakfast, we make our way to Heidelberg. One of the most important castles of the Renaissance period dominates the Altstadt (Old Town). We take the funicular up to the castle, then tour the old town with a local guide. This afternoon we cruise the Rhine River. Along the way, we hear about the history of the many castle ruins and legends, including the siren Lorelei, whose beauty and singing caused sailors to crash their ships against the rocks. After our cruise, we transfer to our hotel and have some time for shopping before dinner. Tonight, we partake in a tasting of the region's fine Rhine wines in a local vintner's wine cellar. B, D

Rudesheim

Day 7: Thursday, Sept. 18, 2025 • Münster (sister city)

We continue our journey north, with a visit to Cologne. This city was first established during the Roman period, then an important city during Medieval and Renaissance times, and a key Prussian city. Today the city is a cultural destination, with many museums, alluring architecture, and both historic and modern shopping districts. We tour the Cathedral, a centerpiece of the city's tourist attractions. Then we have some free time to explore on our own before continuing to our second sister-city visit in Münster. The city is very focused on becoming a leader in climate protection. Under the motto "Our Climate 2030" it is striving toward climate neutrality by the year 2030. We meet with local officials who are working in the areas of sustainability, local transport, water consumption and noise pollution. We also learn how they are promoting community member involvement and disseminating best practice information. We have a group dinner. B, D

Day 8: Friday, Sept. 19, 2025 • Münster (sister city)

We continue our collaboration with the Münster Sister City delegation today. We also tour many of the highlights of the city, including the cathedral, the city hall, old town, and the city museum. This afternoon we have several options to choose from. Some of us may be interested in visiting Saerbeck, a city committed to producing more energy than it consumes. We tour the Bioenergy Park where solar panels, wind turbines and a composting plant create a sustainable source of power for the region and beyond. Other options include a visit to some of the other 30 museums in the city or to stroll the botanic garden at the university. Yet another option is to rent a bike and explore the extensive bike trail system. This evening we have dinner together. B, D

Note: Itinerary can be changed based on events with local dignitaries.

Day 9: Saturday, Sept. 20, 2025 • Return to USA

This morning, we travel to the Amsterdam Schiphol Airport for our flights back to the USA. B

Optional Post Tour - Munich

Day 1-A: Saturday, Sept. 20, 2025 • Munich

Our journey begins as we board a train to Munich, Germany. Tonight we have dinner at a typical German restaurant. B, D

Day 2-A: Sunday, Sept. 21, 2025 • Munich

Today we explore Munich. This is a city that has one foot planted firmly in its history while the other stands on the cutting edge of technology and manufacture. Our first stop is the BMW Museum where we see the displays of both tradition and future trends of BMW. Later we meet up with a local guide who acquaints us with the sights of Bavaria's fun-loving capital including the Marienplatz with the famed Glockenspiel, the Maximilian Straße with its elegant shops, the Residenz Palace, and more. B, D

Day 3-A: Monday, Sept. 22, 2024 • Munich

"Prost!" It's time for Oktoberfest! It began as a celebration of the marriage of the crown prince of Bavaria in 1810. It is now billed as the largest folk-festival in the world. We have plenty of time to sample the great pretzels, the foaming festival beer, the spit-roasted chicken, beef, and all the other delicious foods. We have a lunch reservation in one of the many beer tents. The rest of the day is free to explore the carnival rides, more entertainment tents, or return to the city center to see more of Munich. B, L

Day 4-A: Tuesday, Sept. 23, 2024 • Return

Sadly, we say Auf Wiedersehen to Germany as we transfer to the Munich Airport for our return flight to the United States. B

For those who would like to stay longer in Germany we can assist with arrangements upon request.
