Day 1: Tuesday, September 2, 2025 • Depart USA

Our Emerald Isle adventure takes us on a trans-Atlantic flight from Chicago to Shannon, Ireland.

Day 2: Wednesday, September 3, 2025 • Clifden

Upon arrival in Shannon, we clear customs and meet our coach and driver. We begin our scenic adventure with a drive through Ireland's emerald-green countryside to the Cliffs of Moher on the west coast. Included in our visit to the breathtaking landscapes is the Cliff's Exhibition where we learn the story of the cliffs and the seabirds they protect. Next, we drive through the Burren, an eerie landscape filled with rock formations, monuments and boulders. We arrive at our hotel in time to relax before dinner. D

Day 3: Thursday, September 4, 2025 • Clifden

After breakfast, we explore the unspoiled island of Inishmore in the Aran Islands, ranked as one of the world's top island destinations by National Geographic. The islands are breathtaking, wind-blown, and spectacular! We see historic Celtic churches, sacred sites and ruins, and perhaps learn to speak some Gaelic. Wear your walking shoes as that is our main mode of transportation while on the island (although you may choose to rent a bike). After our sightseeing, we take the ferry back to the mainland and investigate more of Connemara, Galway Peninsula and the small town of Clifden. B, D

Day 4: Friday, September 5, 2025 • Killarney

Following breakfast, we stop at Bunratty Castle and Folk Park. While the castle contains furniture and paintings from the 15th and 16th centuries, the park consists of 25 acres of reconstructed farmhouses, cottages and shops from the 19th century. There is even a tiny village with a blacksmith, pub and post office. We drive through Limerick, Ireland's third largest city before stopping in Adare, Ireland's prettiest village with thatched cottages and colorful gardens on the wooded banks of the River Maigue. We continue south to Killarney, making stops along the way to explore more of the beautiful Emerald Isle. B, D

Day 5: Saturday, September 6, 2025 • Killarney

This morning we travel along one of the most scenic roads in the world: the Ring of Kerry. Sites such as Ladies View, McGillicuddy's Reeks, Waterville and Cahersiveen come to life as we negotiate narrow, winding roads with unforgettable views. In the afternoon, we explore Killarney National Park before returning to Killarney on a jaunting cart, an open horse-drawn carriage. Dinner tonight is on our own. Perhaps tonight is the night for an informal pub crawl! B

Day 6: Sunday, September 7, 2025 • Dublin

Our journey proceeds as we travel to Dublin. The first stop includes a visit to Blarney Castle. Of course, you want to kiss the Blarney Stone and acquire the "gift of eloquence." Next, we see the Rock of Cashel, also known as St Patrick's Rock. Towering over the town from its perch on a 200-foot-high outcrop of limestone, the Rock was once the seat of the Kings of Munster. It was visited by St. Patrick in 450 A.D. and by Brian Boru, the last great High King of Ireland. Today the impressive stone walls enclose a round tower, the Cathedral, a 12th century Romanesque chapel, high crosses and other structures. B, D

Day 7: Monday, September 8, 2025 • Dublin

This morning our local guide takes us on a city tour of Dublin to visit St. Patrick's Cathedral, home of Ireland's largest and most beautiful organ as well as the burial site of Jonathan Swift. We also visit the famed Trinity College, Ireland's oldest college founded in 1592 by England's Queen Elizabeth I. While at the college, we see the Old Library that houses the Book of Kells, the ancient Latin manuscript of the four gospels dating back to the year 800. The remainder of the day is free to explore Dublin on our own. Options include a visit to Dublin Castle or the Natural History Museum, shopping on Grafton and O'Connell Streets or simply relaxing in the arts and entertainment area of Temple Bar. This evening, we have dinner in the heart of Dublin at Oliver St John Gogarty's Irish Pub. B, D

Day 8: Tuesday, September 9, 2025 • Glasgow Area

Today, we journey to Glasgow by coach and ferry. After checking into our hotel, the rest of the day is ours to enjoy at leisure. Dinner this evening is on your own. B

Day 9: Wednesday, September 10, 2025 • Inverness Area

Today we head north along Loch Lomond and Glencoe to Fort William, where we can view Ben Nevis. At 4,406 feet, it is the highest mountain in the British Isles, and the vistas are breathtaking. We continue to Fort Augustus, located at the southern edge of Loch Ness, where we board a vessel and do our own searching for Nessie, the friendly, but elusive, resident monster. B, D

Day 10: Thursday, September 11, 2025 • Edinburgh

A full day of sightseeing and exploration awaits us. We begin by discovering the area of the savage clans and roving barbarians, including a visit to the Culloden Battlefield. We learn about the Jacobite movement, the rise and demise of the clan system, local homes and battlegrounds, and discover many clues to the Celtic and non-Celtic ancestors of the Highlanders. Then, we drive through the Grampian Mountains in the Highlands and venture down into the Cairngorms National Park, the largest in Britain. It covers almost 2,300 miles of beautiful and unspoiled countryside including wild moorlands, soaring mountain peaks, granite Ice Age glacier heaves, and spectacular valleys, rivers and lochs (lakes) as well as a huge variety of wildlife. We take a break to enjoy Afternoon Tea. We arrive in Edinburgh in time for dinner. B, D

Bunratty Castle

Day 11: Friday, September 12, 2025 • Edinburgh

This morning we enjoy a panoramic tour of Edinburgh, a beautiful city, often referred to as the "Athens of the North!" Highlights include the Walter Scott Monument, the elegant Prince's Street, architectural wonders, plus much more! We have an inside tour of Edinburgh Castle, with its foreboding ramparts and walls, amazing city views, Crown jewels, and the siege gun, Mon's Meg. The afternoon is open for options, an opportunity to visit museums or Queen Elizabeth II's Yacht "Britannia", explore botanical gardens or the zoo, or perhaps shop for that special "Scottish Tweed." This evening we celebrate a "Spirit of Scotland evening" with dinner as our journey through Ireland and Scotland comes to an end. B, D

Day 12: Saturday, September 13, 2025 • Return

We transfer to the airport with memories of a lifetime. B
